

Troopers Arrest Two Baltimore Men in Shoplifting Turned Robbery – Wilmington

Wilmington – The Delaware State Police have arrested 25 year old Antwon Dixon and 29 year old Derek T. James, both of Baltimore MD, in connection with a shoplifting turned robbery that took place at a north Wilmington grocery store Thursday evening.

The incident occurred at approximately 6:25 p.m., Thursday, November 21, 2019 at the Giant Foods grocery store, located at 4301 Concord Pike, Wilmington. Dixon and James removed an assortment of personal hygiene products from the display and exited the store without paying. A store employee confronted them in the parking lot at which time Dixon physically assaulted her, by punching her in the face, causing a minor injury. After the assault both men loaded the stolen merchandise into a Hyundai Sonata with Maryland tags and fled the scene. A description of the vehicle was broadcast to other Troopers, who located the vehicle on southbound I-95. A traffic stop was conducted and both men were taken in to custody without incident. A subsequent search of the vehicle produced the merchandise that was stolen during the incident.

Dixon and James were transported to Troop 1 where they were formally charged in regards to the incident.

Dixon was arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court #11 on one count of Robbery 2nd Degree and then committed to the Howard R. Young Correctional Institute on $5000.00 secured bail.

James was arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court #11 on one count of Conspiracy 2nd Degree and committed to the Howard R. Young Correctional Institution on $2000.00 secured bail.
